

PALACE HOTEL TOKYO

PALATIAL PURSUITS: UNMASKING TOKYO

~ Package Overview ~

With Unmasking Tokyo, Palace Hotel's handpicked docent will help you demystify the well-known, but not always well-understood ancient stage tradition. You and a guest will sit down to a pre-performance lunch with a local Kabuki journalist and commentator who will introduce the stage art before the curtain is raised. The package includes tickets to a performance at the Kabuki-za theater, a mecca for the art form, which recently reopened after a major restoration.

In addition, tours of the Kabuki-related shops in the surrounding area as well as a post-show, backstage meet-and-greet or even a dinner with members of the cast and crew can potentially be arranged, along with the opportunity to dress in a Kabuki costume. Additional fees may apply.

Note: Performances are held at the famed Kabuki-za between the 1st and 25th of each month. Between the 26th and 30th, performances are held at alternative venues.

The Unmasking Tokyo experience includes:

- 2 nights of accommodation for two in the room or suite category of your choice*
- Daily breakfast (Executive Suite and Chiyoda Suite bookings include Club Lounge access)
- Chauffeured private transportation to & from the Kabuki theater
- Kabuki journalist and commentator as your personal guide + an accompanying translator
- Insights about Kabuki during a private lunch with your guide (and translator)
- Guided tour of the Kabuki-za Theater and gallery
- Two tickets to the day's Kabuki performance
