

PALACE HOTEL TOKYO

HOTEL FACT SHEET

OVERVIEW

The 290-room Palace Hotel Tokyo commands some of the city's most exclusive real estate and stands as heir to a legacy going back more than half a century as one of the city's most iconic hotels.

Reconstructed entirely from the ground up, the contemporary Palace Hotel Tokyo is the anchor to a USD 1.2 billion mixed-use development – the hotel component of which features exquisite guestrooms, 10 distinctive restaurants & bars, Japan's only evian SPA and extensive meetings & events facilities.

Imbued with understated luxury, sophisticated restraint and subtle Japanese touches throughout, the hotel was envisioned and developed as a tribute to omotenashi (Japanese hospitality) and design and is the only wholly Japanese-owned and managed hotel to garner the industry's highly coveted Forbes Five-Star rating – an award recognized worldwide as a prestigious mark of distinction.

Drawing deeply from the country's history, culture and art, the much-lauded property has redefined luxury in Japan with grace, elegance and authenticity since its debut in May 2012.

With its decades-long commitment to offering omotenashi at its finest, Palace Hotel presents guests with an unparalleled experience of Tokyo.

LOCATION

The hotel's singular moat-side setting across from the Imperial Palace gardens - a 3.5-square-kilometer green space in the heart of the city - delivers an incomparable perspective on Tokyo's natural splendor and the skyline that surrounds from every single guestroom, its spa and nearly all of its restaurants and bars.

Claiming prime frontage at 1-1-1 Marunouchi, the hotel also offers its guests centrality in the prestigious Marunouchi district.

Mere steps away is Marunouchi Naka Dori, a tree-lined shopping street tantamount to New York City's Madison Avenue and London's Bond Street – a popular dining and shopping destination for foodies and fashionistas alike.

In-room Amenities

Uniquely Japanese touches include bath linens made in Imabari – a city in the Ehime prefecture of Japan renowned for the quality of its towel manufacturing since it began over 110 years ago – and high quality Jugetsudo brand teas by Maruyama Nori, a venerable Japanese brand founded in 1854 in Tokyo's Tsukiji district.

Accompanying the Jugetsudo teas as part of the in-room tea service presentation are nambu-tekkei cast iron teapots and tea cups handmade in Tochigi prefecture in the Mashiko-yaki style of pottery which dates back to Japan's Nara period. The lacquer tea cup saucers originate from Sabae, a city in Fukui prefecture known for the emperor-commissioned Echizen lacquerware it began producing over 1,500 years ago.

Bath amenities include Parisian brand Anne Semonin for rooms and British brand Bamford for suites.

RESTAURANTS & BARS

Much more than a complement to travelers' stay experience, the hotel's 10 restaurants & bars are dining destinations in and of themselves in one of the world's most vibrant culinary scenes.

At Crown, a talented culinary team meticulously trained in the French culinary arts presents fine dining à la traditional French cooking methods paired with refined Japanese culinary aesthetics.

Among the hotel's Japanese offerings are exquisite kaiseki at Wadakura, mouth-watering teppanyaki at GO, delectable tempura at Tatsumi and top-flight sushi at Sushi Kanesaka.

And the one Michelin-starred restaurant Amber Palace managed by Chugoku Hanten Group serves up some of the city's finest Chinese.

Beyond these ambitions, the all-day dining restaurant Grand Kitchen and the hotel's wonderfully situated bars & lounges round-out Tokyo's most dynamic eating and drinking collective.

Each uniquely designed space cultivates a mood of its own, from the brooding refuge of Royal Bar to the cheerful disposition of The Palace Lounge and the chic allure of Lounge Bar Privé. None will remind you of the other, and each is worthy of exploration.

Please refer to the Restaurants & Bars Fact Sheet available in Palace Hotel Tokyo's online Newsroom for additional details.

IN-ROOM DINING

In addition to dining at any of the hotel's stand-alone eateries, guests of Palace Hotel Tokyo may turn to a wide-range of fare on the hotel's in-room menu, including selections from its restaurants and bars.

evian SPA TOKYO

Occupying 1,200 square meters of space on the fifth floor, evian SPA TOKYO encompasses five treatment rooms, one dual-bedded spa suite and separate men's & women's relaxation lounges. French savoir-faire and Asian therapies set the stage for one of Tokyo's most refined spa experiences.

FITNESS FACILITY

The hotel's fifth floor is also home to an indoor swimming pool with Jacuzzi as well as a 127-square-meter fitness center outfitted with equipment by Technogym and Life Fitness and a Kinesis System.

Please refer to the evian SPA TOKYO Fact Sheet available in Palace Hotel Tokyo's online Newsroom for additional details.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

Eight multi-purpose rooms comprise Palace Hotel Tokyo's meeting facilities in addition to a formal boardroom that seats 28 and three smaller meeting rooms. The signature flourish in the 1,160-square-meter, pillar-less Aoi ballroom is a 7-meter-tall by 22-meter-wide window directly overlooking the picturesque Wadakura moat and surrounding gardens.

The hotel also has its very own wedding chapel – with views of the Imperial Palace gardens – and an exquisitely designed Shinto shrine.

PALACE HOTEL TOKYO SHOPPING ARCADE

As a complement to the hotel's 23 above-ground floors, the uppermost of four basement levels features an array of retail outlets – including Sweets & Deli, the hotel's cake & pastry shop where the chocolate is homemade and the breads freshly baked.

PROXIMITY TO TRANSPORTATION

This same level also provides direct underground passage to Otemachi Station, one of the city's major subway interchanges, and also the landmark Tokyo Station, the country's main subway, light rail and high-speed rail hub.

Via street level, Tokyo Station is a mere eight-minute stroll away.
