

From resort renos to spa specials, take a look at what's new in travel, leisure and golf throughout the West and beyond.

Does a Body Good

After a floor-to-ceiling remodel, the newly named SPA BILTMORE at the legendary Arizona Biltmore, A Waldorf Astoria Resort is ready to impress guests with its jaw-dropping good looks and new menu of treatments. The spa's sleek new aesthetic is designed to soothe guests while incorporating the comfortable and welcoming colors of nature. Using organic, raw, vegan and gluten-free products, the fresh lineup of treatments is intended to complement spa-goers' personal preferences, desires and well-being. On the menu, check out the new Volcanic Sand Meets Red Clay Detox during which gentle volcanic sand and Moroccan argon oil are used to exfoliate while rich red clay absorbs impurities. arizonabiltmore.com.

Palatial Pursuit

New this year, PALACE HOTEL TOKYO has introduced Quintessentially Tokyo, a $50,000 experience designed to capture the essence of the country's arts, gastronomy, culture and natural wonders. The six-day, five-night stay—guests get to cozy up in the art-filled Palace Suite—comprises a full-day art excursion led by one of the world's leading art and culture curators; a one-on-one foodie tour that may include sipping sake and navigating fish markets; a four-hour session with a cultural expert to explain and help navigate Japan's customs and traditions; a luminous akoya pearl; spa treatments and more. Round-trip airport transfers, daily chauffeured private car service and full Club Lounge access and privileges are also included. en.palacehoteltokyo.com.
