PALACE HOTEL TOKYO

THE FIRST EVER JAPANESE-BRANDED HOTEL TO BE AWARDED FIVE STARS

Presenting guests with an experience of the city rivaled only by its incomparable views, Palace Hotel Tokyo offers 278 guestrooms and 12 suites after a complete re-build from the ground-up. Re-opened in 2012, the hotel features the country's first Evian SPA. Evian SPA TOKYO offers a most refined spa experience to refresh and relax body and mind. The 1,200-square-metre spa and fitness facility encompasses five treatment rooms, one spa suite and separate men's & women's relaxation lounges, with French savoir-faire and Asian therapies setting the stage for one of Tokyo's most refined spa experiences.

Its 10 restaurants and bars include Royal Bar, whose lead mixologist was hailed as one of the World's Best Bartenders by Diageo in 2012, and Crown, amongst the most esteemed French restaurants in Japan. Each venue is an individually designed space that cultivates a mood all its own.

The hotel is a 10-minute walk from Tokyo Station and mere steps away from Marunouchi Naka Dori, a picturesque, tree-lined boulevard that serves as one of Tokyo's most posh shopping and dining destinations.

Palace Hotel Tokyo's has its very own cake and pastry shop, Sweets & Deli. The chocolates are homemade and the breads freshly baked every day. It also offers a wide selection of homemade delicacies beautifully packaged to deliver as a gift or as an edible memento of your stay. Sweets & Deli is delighted to present its original sake cake. The one-of-a-kind creation is infused with the hotel's signature Junmai Ginjo sake that is made exclusively for Palace Hotel Tokyo by Hakkaisan Brewery.
