

INSPIRE
TOP 100 HOTELS
AMERICAS

Top 100 Hotels in the World

Travel around the world in luxury with our definitive guide to the top 100 hotels on the planet. For the second edition of this list, we present our updated picks of the properties that offer the most captivating atmosphere, extraordinary comfort, impeccable service and standout amenities. Enjoy this journey of discovery, from the wilderness of Newfoundland to the exotic shores of Bora Bora.

by Samantha Coles, Will Grice,
Thea Halstead, Lauren Jade Hill
and Kristen Shirley

Palace Hotel Tokyo

TOKYO, JAPAN

One of the newest additions to Tokyo's luxury hotel scene, Palace Hotel Tokyo is positioned within the Imperial Palace precinct garden in the sleek Marunouchi business district. As a proudly Japanese brand, the hotel celebrates its roots through every aspect of the guest experience, from embracing the nation's omotenashi approach to hospitality to the local experiences the concierge provides; explore Tokyo's streets with an expert culinary guide, venture to a sumo stable or uncover the local art scene. Since opening in 2012, the hotel has won great acclaim for its restaurants in particular, which range from French-Japanese fusion fine dining to sushi by Michelin-starred chef Shinji Kanesaka.

Palace Suite from $8,810 per night. Contact Koichi Okizaki, director of global sales and marketing, okizakik@palacehotel.jp, +81 332 115 211, en.palacehoteltokyo.com

