

PALACE HOTEL TOKYO

HOTEL FACT SHEET

OVERVIEW

Palace Hotel Tokyo commands some of the city's most exclusive real estate and stands as heir to a legacy dating back more than half a century as one of the city's most iconic hotels.

Reconstructed entirely from the ground up, the contemporary Palace Hotel Tokyo is the anchor to a USD 1.2 billion mixed-use development – the hotel component of which features 290 exquisite guestrooms, 10 distinctive restaurants & bars, Japan's only evian SPA and extensive meetings & events facilities.

Imbued with understated luxury, sophisticated restraint and subtle Japanese touches throughout, the hotel was envisioned and developed as a tribute to design and omotenashi (Japanese hospitality) and is the only wholly Japanese-owned and managed hotel to garner the industry's highly coveted Forbes Five-Star rating – an award recognized worldwide as a prestigious mark of distinction.

Drawing deeply from the country's history, arts and culture, the much-lauded property has redefined luxury in Japan with grace, elegance and authenticity since it debuted in May 2012.

With its decades-long commitment to offering omotenashi at its finest, Palace Hotel presents guests with an unparalleled experience of Tokyo.

LOCATION

The hotel's singular moat-side setting across from the Imperial Palace gardens - a 3.5-square-kilometer green space in the heart of the city - delivers an incomparable perspective on Tokyo's natural splendor and the skyline that surrounds from every single guestroom, its spa and nearly all of its restaurants and bars.

Claiming prime frontage at 1-1-1 Marunouchi, the hotel also offers its guests centrality in the prestigious Marunouchi district.

Mere steps away is Marunouchi Naka Dori, a tree-lined boulevard tantamount to New York City's Madison Avenue and London's Bond Street – a popular dining and shopping destination for foodies and fashionistas alike.

HISTORY The 23-story hotel succeeds two previous hotels, Hotel Teito (under separate ownership) and Palace Hotel, that occupied the same site from 1947 and 1961 respectively. Each was razed to the ground to make way for its successor. Click here for more information on the hotel's history.

ORIGINAL OPENING 1 October 1961

RE-OPENING DATE 17 May 2012

ACCOMMODATIONS 278 guestrooms and 12 suites offer picture-perfect views of the Imperial Palace gardens and the surrounding Tokyo skyline.

Accommodations range in size from an ample 45 square meters to a spacious 255 square meters.

Most of the hotel's guestrooms have open-style bathrooms with separate soaking tubs & showers, and more than half feature private balconies – a true rarity in Tokyo.

With leafy carpet motifs and earthy color palettes throughout, the hotel's luxuriously cozy and contemporary interiors invoke its proximity to Tokyo's much-loved natural splendor.

IN-ROOM AMENITIES Guestrooms amenities and facilities include Nespresso machines, fully stocked minibars, electric kettles, an array of complimentary coffees and teas, VOIP telephones, cable and satellite television channels, Blu-ray / DVD / CD players, built-in international power sockets, complimentary high-speed Internet access and LCD TVs in the bathroom, bedroom and living areas.

Uniquely Japanese touches include bath linens made in Imabari – a city in the Ehime prefecture of Japan renowned for the quality of its towel manufacturing since it began over 110 years ago – and high quality Jugetsudo brand teas by Maruyama Nori, a venerable Japanese brand founded in 1854 in Tokyo's Tsukiji district.

Accompanying the Jugetsudo teas as part of the in-room tea presentation are nambu-tekki cast iron teapots as well as tea cups handmade in Tochigi prefecture in the Mashiko-yaki style of pottery, which dates back to Japan's Nara period. The lacquer tea cup saucers originate from Sabae, a city in Fukui prefecture known for the emperor-commissioned Echizen lacquerware it began producing over 1,500 years ago.

Bath amenities include Parisian brand Anne Semonin in rooms and British brand Bamford in suites.

RESTAURANTS & BARS

Much more than a complement to travelers' stay experience, the hotel's 10 restaurants & bars are dining destinations in and of themselves in one of the world's most vibrant culinary scenes.

At Esterre, the first collaboration between a Japanese hotel and Ducasse Paris (founded by world-renowned chef and restaurateur Alain Ducasse) presents a new contemporary approach to haute cuisine – with the distinctive, natural flavours of the country's terroir (land and sea) taking pride of place.

Among the hotel's Japanese offerings are kaiseki at Wadakura, teppanyaki at GO, tempura at Tatsumi and sushi at Sushi Kanesaka.

And the one Michelin-starred restaurant Amber Palace managed by Chugoku Hanten Group serves up some of the city's finest Chinese.

The lively all-day dining restaurant Grand Kitchen and the hotel's elegantly appointed bars & lounges round-out one of Tokyo's most dynamic eating and drinking collective.

Each uniquely designed space cultivates a mood of its own, from the brooding refuge of Royal Bar to the cheerful disposition of The Palace Lounge and the chic allure of Lounge Bar Privé.

IN-ROOM DINING

In-house guests of Palace Hotel Tokyo can also turn to the wide range of fare featured in its extensive in-room dining menu, including signature offerings from its restaurants and bars – such as The Palace Lounge’s very popular Japanese-inspired afternoon tea presentation as well as prix-fixe menus from Wadakura and Amber Palace that are exclusively available via In-Room Dining.

EVIAN SPA TOKYO

Occupying 1,200 square meters of space on the fifth floor, evian SPA TOKYO encompasses five treatment rooms, one dual-bedded spa suite and separate men’s & women’s relaxation lounges.

French savoir-faire and Asian therapies set the stage for one of Tokyo’s most refined spa experiences.

FITNESS FACILITY

The hotel’s fifth floor is also home to an indoor swimming pool with Jacuzzi as well as a 127-square-meter fitness center outfitted with equipment by Technogym and Life Fitness as well as a Kinesis System.

Please refer to the evian SPA TOKYO Fact Sheet available in our online Newsroom for additional information.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

Eight multi-purpose rooms comprise Palace Hotel Tokyo’s meeting facilities in addition to a formal boardroom that seats 28 and three smaller meeting rooms. The signature flourish in the 1,160-square-meter, pillar-less Aoi ballroom is a 7-meter-tall by 22-meter-wide window directly overlooking the picturesque Wadakura moat and surrounding gardens.

The hotel also has its very own wedding chapel – with views of the Imperial Palace gardens – and an exquisitely designed Shinto shrine, to accommodate both western and eastern traditions.

HOTEL ARCADE

As a complement to the hotel’s 23 above-ground floors, the uppermost of four basement levels features an array of retail outlets – including Sweets & Deli, Palace Hotel Tokyo’s cake & pastry shop where the chocolate is homemade and the breads freshly baked.

PROXIMITY TO TRANSPORTATION

Direct underground passage to Otemachi Station, one of the city’s major subway interchanges, and also the landmark Tokyo Station – the country’s main subway, light rail and high-speed rail hub – is also located on this B1 level. Above ground, Tokyo Station is a mere eight-minute stroll away.
